

Merging T-mobile with AT&T is very likely going to increase rates for T- mobile customers while simultaneously degrading our service since that bandwidth will be gobbled up by AT&T customers. We need more choices for mobile services, not fewer. Competition makes for a better marketplace and is better for consumers. This needs to not happen!